

NOT A NATIONAL ISSUE.

It is difficult to see how Democrats can extract any encouragement for next year out of the election returns, as the local questions and the personal popularity of the gubernatorial candidates, which enabled them to elect the governors of Iowa and Massachusetts, will cut no figure in the national contest.

Their greatest victory was the election of Flower in New York, and that too, was effected by local questions if the information we have here is correct. But for the sake of argument let us grant that it was not. In any event it signifies nothing. New York has elected more Democratic governors than Republicans during the past twenty years, so that it by no means follows that because it went Democratic this year it will elect the Democratic electoral ticket next year. Mr. Harrison expressed the opinion, which is shared by most observant Republicans hereabouts, that had the fight in New York been conducted upon national issues, as it was in Ohio, the State would have gone Republican.

The best estimate of the coming Presidential campaign based upon the returns of the recent Eastern elections, give the Republicans 190 sure votes in the Electoral College and the Democrats 159. As the college will contain 444 votes, this estimate leaves 95 of them to be classed as doubtful. Of these Connecticut will cast 6 Massachusetts 15, Indiana 15, Iowa 15, New Jersey 10 and New York 39. To win, the Democrats will need 64 of these and the Republicans 33.

A new gold coin, to the value of 20 marks, has been issued from the Berlin mint. It represents the Emperor with a full flowing beard. On the old coin he has no beard—otherwise the coins are exactly similar in all respects. The clear headed Berlin dealers in gold have rapidly bought up this new 20-mark piece. The secret of the run is that the dealers have found out that the addition of the full beard on the coin has caused it to be somewhat heavier.

"Miguel's Ride," is the title of a pathetic little story in the Argonaut of November 16th. It is a Southern California tale, telling of the cruel joke played on a little Mexican lad who is trying to sell his well loved horse in order to pay a doctor to visit his brother, little Felipe. The writer is Josephine T. Hunter, of Los Angeles a new and welcome addition to the ranks of Pacific Coast writers.

Henry Patton of the Banning Herald, one of the first navigators of the Salton Sea, still declares his belief that the sea has come to stay, and insists that with the ordinary rise of the Colorado River the lake will be tenfold greater in extent this winter than it has ever been.

It looks to a man up a tree that the indictment of Buckley is something of a farce. He cannot be reached in Canada. All the indictment will effect will be to warn the men he bribed in the Board of Supervisors that they can have plenty of time to skip.

Now that Stanford is producing colts that beat the world's record every few days, the APPEAL suggests that he hitch a few of those nags to his railway trains and see if they can't pull through this State at a little livelier pace.

The Canadian newspapers are discussing with great freedom the question of annexation. At present the more general opinion seems to be that a customs union would be the most desirable step.

The Examiner says that Buckley and Rainey are in the same boat. We want to see them both in the same jail.
